DOTZ Magazine

DOTZ recently released their second European Automotive Lifestyle Magazine at the Essen Motor Show.

The magazine is available in German or English and this issue focuses on the sport of Drifting. DOTZ sponsored Stian Jacobsen and Thomas Nikolaisen introduce us to the art and give us a quick masterclass lesson. There are also features on drift stars Rhys Millen, Ken Nomura and the Japanese master and '07 champion Masato Kawabata. There are reports on the current state of the art in its native Japan and how the emerging sport in America measures up. What's the best car for drifting? A Toyota AE86? A Nissan Silvia S15, or perhaps a good old BMW E30? Find out in the DOTZ magazine.

Want some more extreme sports? There's snowboarding with JP Walker and an introduction the new extreme sport of Slacklining.

You can read also about the new Nissan Skyline GT-R and the new Scirocco. There's music, a review of the Las Vegas SEMA Show, West Coast Customs, new product reviews and a four page photo spread with 2009 DOTZ girl Loraine.

Flip the magazine over and you'll find a full DOTZ 2009 catalogue with all their latest wheel designs and their new clothing range. The DOTZ Magazine retails at €3.90 and is available through all DOTZ retailers.
